

Phlebotomy

Adult Education Course - 70 Course Hours

Plattsburgh Main Campus

Phlebotomy training prepares students to perform finger and venous blood draws. Safety, proper infection control methods, and emergency preparedness are included in the course. Students receive preparation for entering a health career in Phlebotomy. NHA certification is offered to candidates who successfully complete the program.

Program Highlights

- First Aid
- CPR
- Medical Terminology
- Infection Control
- Medical Abbreviations
- Blood and Cell Composition
- Safety in the Health Care Environment

Career Connections

- Phlebotomy Technician
- Clinical Assistant
- With Further Education: Licensed Practical Nurse, Registered Nurse, Radiology Technician, Surgical Technologist

Articulation Agreements

- Clinton Community College

Certifications

- NYS Licensure

Course of Study

Role of the Phlebotomy Technician

Safety In the Healthcare Setting

Basic First Aid and CPR

Infection Control

Legal and Ethical Issues

- Confidentiality
- HIPAA Regulations

Cardiac Anatomy and Physiology

Blood and Cell

Composition

Medical Terminology

Vital Signs

Clinical Experiences

- Hands on Phlebotomy

Training

- Lab Practice
- Shadow